Newsletter #1- 2013

Greetings from a hot and dusty Rajasthan, this is the beginning of our summertime and already the temperatures are up to 40°C [112°F]...just a few more months and hopefully the monsoon will come.

It might feel like high summer here further west in the northern hemisphere it is still Spring...

Praveen and I have our bags packed and we are ready to set off the Madrid in a few days for the start of our 'Moorish Delights of Andalusia and Morocco 2013'- so much to look forward to- Spring means beautiful red poppies by the roadside, a great group of traveling companions and much to experience.

Best wishes Fiona, Praveen and the CAS team.

Glorious Ghana

All ready to tour 12-25 January, 2014 and bookings are open. Come join us for a wealth of beautiful African fabrics, handmade beads and the best baskets ever!

Lots of hands-on workshops, lots of exploring, lots of markets.

A French Theme

Take a look at Dijanne's blog for some of her recent work inspired by France.

France: the Mirrabelle Trail

Dreamed up by Fiona, Praveen and Dijanne Cevaal we want to share places and views we love, a chance to wander through a magical landscape, experience wonderful food and refreshments and offer an opportunity to turn this inspiration into a textile piece. We are planning to follow a trail of Medieval tapestries and architecture for inspiration- think The Lady and the Unicorn Tapestries, Bayeux Tapestry, Chartres Cathedral as well as soak up contemporary textiles at the Carrefour European Patchwork Expo for a few days.

As a part this tour idea Dijanne Cevaal will offer an online course to help turn the gathered inspiration into a story cloth/ book based on the many things we experience, to be taken at leisure once you are home again.
